180 m²
Surface area
Espace Victor Hugo and Edith Piaf Terrace

The Espace Victor Hugo is intended for cocktail type events (breakfasts, standing buffet lunches or cocktail receptions), or mini-conferences (quick speeches, product presentations, etc.). Reserving this space also enables the user the right to access the adjoining France Pavilion terrace.

100 pax
Capacity for cocktail reception

216 m²

(Espace Victor Hugo : 78m²
Terrace : 138m²)
The Espace George Sand (EGS) is intended for cocktail type events (breakfast, standing buffet lunch or cocktail reception), or limited sized conferences or meetings (board, in theatre or U layout.)

The EGS may be used in correlation with two other spaces: The Espace Victor Hugo and the Salon Colette.

The Espace George Sand is located beside the Espace Victor Hugo. It is separated by a moveable partition. The Salon adjoins the EGS and is accessed through 1 door which open directly in the back of the room. This layout is ideal to benefit from a cozy space after a meeting in the Salon Colette for example.

If needed, a part of the terrace could be rented with the Espace George Sand.

Agora Marie Curie

The Agora Marie Curie is an open space on the terrace and is designed for conference type events (public speaking, round table, etc.) or viewings (concerts, projections, shows, etc.).

The Agora Marie Curie is accessible to the public through the back of the amphitheater, via the terrace. Access via the side of the stage is possible.

The Agora Marie Curie may be hired privately in correlation with the Espace Victor Hugo. This layout is ideal for creating a reception/welcome area before a conference in the Agora Marie Curie.
